

House Resolution No. 1352

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives realize that the rank of Eagle Scout is a performance-based achievement, the proud standards of which have been well maintained for many years; and

Whereas, Zachary David "Zac" Hammel of Kansas City, Missouri, will receive the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held on April 18, 2004, at the Church of the Redeemer; and

Whereas, Zac, a member of Boy Scout Troop 370, successfully met the requirements to attain Eagle status by completing his Eagle project which involved laying sod; planting trees, bushes, and flowers; and adding decorative mulch to the entire front side of the Church of the Redeemer following the completion of a construction and remodeling project; and

Whereas, during his eleven years in Scouting, Zac mastered several challenging and diverse skills to earn the Arrow of Light, thirty-four merit badges, the Scout Spirit award, the National Camping Award, the World Conservation Award, Ordeal membership in the Order of the Arrow, and the status of Tom-Tom Beater in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, where he is known as Distant Black Wolf Howling at the Full Moon; and

Whereas, Zac demonstrated his capability and willingness to exert leadership by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of Senior Patrol Leader, Quartermaster, and Assistant Patrol Leader; and

Whereas, the son of David and Laura Hammel, Zac developed immense personal growth and fitness by participating in the many assorted activities the Boy Scouts offers, some of which include going on High Adventure trips to Philmont and the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness; and

Whereas, Zac's attainment of the Eagle rank will be recognized at all levels of our society as being a great achievement that required considerable dedication and effort:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Zac Hammel for the steadfast determination he displayed in his pursuit to attain the rank of Eagle and in wishing him continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Zachary David Hammel.
